

I live in north alabama where all of the newspapers are family owned. The Decatur Daily in about every issue makes biased comments concerning my town and the people in it. Despite the bad things that go on there our make's their front page. This is like they have a personnel grudge against Moulton can you do something are direct me to someone who could.